

WTC Milan announces a new partnership with M.G.M. Alimentari

The World Trade Center Milan signed an agreement with M.G.M. Alimentari, a company leader in the sale of high-quality food products.

The company has always offered selected and refined food products made by experts in the sector, and aimed at the most demanding clientele.

M.G.M. Alimentari has expanded its activity by opening FeelingFood Milano, a large multifunctional location recently refurbished and especially tailored for food events, i.e. cooking courses with the most important Italian and foreign chefs, meetings with top-level food producers and others initiatives and activities created for companies.

After the opening of the Japanese branch in Nagoya and the joint venture with the WJNetwork Group, the partnership with the World Trade Center Milan is another important step towards an international expansion, thanks also to the worldwide network of the World Trade Centers Association.

WTC Milan is in fact a member of the international Association which counts more than 300 affiliated in nearly 100 Countries.

According to this co-operation, M.G.M. Alimentari will provide WTC Milan with professional consultancy services in the sector for import/export activities of extra fine food products.

For further information: marketing@wtcitaly.com

